THE GATHERING INTERNATIONAL REFERENCES OF GASTRONOMIC WINES

Gastronomic wines of worldwide submitted to international experts in oenology, viticulture, wine, wine tourism, the general public, the media, gastronomy and business.

New visions, New Perceptions
An international competition of Gastronomic Wines , unique in the world in the International Capital of Gastronomy, PARIS

We are aware that gastronomy varies according to social classes, nations, regions, eras and trends. Local, regional and national gastronomic habits reside, however, solidly anchored and based not only on terroir products, but also on technical and artistic principles.

Across the generations and around the world, Wine and Gastronomy are transmitted and continue to convey strong images of identity.

Wine and Gastronomy have today become cultural products, synonymous with discovery, diversity, exchange and conviviality, and it is these products that allow us to approach the different gastronomies of the world.

In this way, by pushing the limits of professionalism and curiosity, we wanted for the 6th edition of this international competition, a magic and mythical venue, we are proud that it will take place in the realm of international gastronomy, close to heart of epicureans and hedonists at

PARIS

This international competition offers the possibility for wines from all countries that have attained organoleptic levels that approach the pinnacle of their appellation or their origin, to be tasted and to benefit from the professional, international expertise of men and women from the world of Wine and Gastronomy.

This international competition is also destined to bring to light the strong economic impact, the professionalism and the expertise of these two sectors of economic activity, the world of wine and of gastronomy on an international level.

INTERNATIONAL GASTRONOMIC WINES OF COMPETITION™

COMPETITION RULES

international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie is organized in Paris by Inter Concours du Monde –29 RUE DES TEMPLIERS – 83170 Brignoles (France).

Article 1 : OBJECTIVE OF THE COMPETITION

This competition is open to all wines from all countries and all viticultural regions with a specified geographical denomination. In what concerns the French wines, they should have made a statement of claim under section D. 644-5 and D. 646-6 of the Rural Code. Wines without geographical indication will not be accepted for the competition.

The competition is intended to highlight the intrinsic qualities of wines from specific geographical areas and to distinguish those wines of outstanding quality and that are exceptionally expressive of their appellation or origin.

The competition is intended to highlight various terroirs and professions linked to gastronomy at an international level.

The prizes awarded in this international competition will :

- Provide all competitors with a representative evaluation of their products.
- Encourage the launch and sales of quality wines both in terms of the product and its presentation.
- Promote the quality, diversity and excellence of the prize winning gastronomic wines from different appellations or origins.
- Encourage the expansion of wine and wine culture at an international level.
- Reinforce the identity and consumer perception of gastronomic wines internationally.
- By providing international references, communicate a message to 80% of consumers who are highly receptive to information on gastronomic wines.

Article 7 : COMPETITION RULES

The samples will be presented in an totally anonymous fashion to the judging panels.

Upon arrival, the sample is identified by a label on the bottle indicating the name of the competition year, the registration number label (Producer - Sample No. Sample). Samples will not ring Cetei 35-100 TR or crown ring 29 will be reconditioned in a bottle with this type of ring.

The implementation is done anonymously by bagging the sample to be presented to the tasters. The bag containing the sample is black baggy and color. The sample is presented without overcap on the bag containing the sample is indicated on a label, the anonymous number (jury, series and item number).

The samples will be grouped according to their category (color, type, grape variety) and will be tasted in series and / or mini series in the series. In a category, if the number of competitors is less than three at the time of registration, the category may be either deleted or grouped at the organizer's discretion. The affected samples may also be re-registered in a generic category.

The technical director transmits to the general commissioner the elements of anonymity. The general commissioner makes all the arrangements so that the samples subjected to the tasting are rendered strictly anonymous. He may make any transfer, change of packaging, masking or any other operation necessary to preserve the strict anonymity of the samples.

The organizers reserve the right to cancel a category for which an insufficient number of samples have been received: three samples minimum from three different competitors.

Each wine tasted is scored individually and not comparatively.

The wines will be blind-tasted and for their intrinsic properties. The marking scheme is a point by point system as used in the official OIV tasting sheet out of 100 points.

The total number of judges is decided according to the number of samples presented.

The Technical Commission of the Inter Concours du Monde designates nominally tasters members of each jury through its database of international tasters.

Each table jury consists of five jurors (women or men), 3 foreign judges and two French judges or 3 french judges or 2 french judges each representing one of the five panels below that correspond to the highlighted trades wine, wine and wine tourism trades.

We will find a juror of the amateur panel discovery. The choice to integrate amateurs is a deliberate because the panel reflects the tastes and expectations of consumers.

Each juror is from a different country and the Technical Committee strives to meet a wide geographical dispersion and panel times.

Each judging panel comprises five judges recognized for their abilities based on each of the following panels:

- Panel 1 : oenologists and/or winemakers and/or vineyard owners, producers ; Presidents of the judging panels ;
- Panel 2 : distribution, commercialization & wine tourism,
- Panel 3 : trades in gastronomy ,
- Panel 4 : education, training and media;
- Panel 5 : wine lovers – amateur discovery .

The total number of international judges is determined by the number of samples presented. Inter Concours du Monde Association collects an affidavit stating jury members their links, direct or indirect, with businesses, schools, professional organizations or associations whose activities, products or interests may affect the wines entered.

A judge may not judge her own wines.

Association Inter Concours du Monde appoints a president, oenologist or possess an equivalent degree or having demonstrated a high qualification and experience for tasting in the wine business and secretary for each judging panel. Juries operate under the authority of the President, it may be a member of the jury.

It provides, in conjunction with the Technical Manager, the Commissioners of the competition, the organizer, the overall functioning of the jury and the right tasting.

Inter Concours du Monde Association will ensure the proper functioning of international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie™ by organizing the preparation of the samples and organization of the tasting sessions.

Inter Concours du Monde Association will organize the monitoring, exploitation and publication of results using an appropriate evaluation form.

Article 8 : AWARDS

The number of awards attributed during the international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie™ Association will not represent more than a third of the samples presented in each category. These distinctions will be awarded, in the opinion of the jury, to wines that meet the organoleptic quality classes.

The prizes awarded by the judging panels of the international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie™ Association will be at two levels:

- "DIAMOND STAR" rating overall > 85 points to 100 points
- "SILVER STAR" score between 80 and 84.9 points out of 100 points overall

No prize will be awarded, if for a given wine category, less than three different samples are received, or if the samples are not presented by three different competitors.

Prize-winners will be informed by post or email. Inter Concours du Monde

Association for the international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie™ will furnish the prize-winners with a document stating the type of prize awarded, stating the type of prize awarded, the wine's identity, the batch volume, the score, the name and address of the competitor, name of competition. Stickers indicating the type of prize awarded will be available from Inter Concours du Monde Association for international gastronomic wines competition-concours international des vins de gastronomie™ and may be affixed to bottles of the relevant wines.

At the end of the competition, the award-winning wines only, according to their score, can be distinguished by particular mentions, Grand Prix and / or Trophy.

Below is the schedule of particulars according to the ratings obtained for the award-winning wines.

- * GRAND PRIX, wine having obtained the high note of the whole contest.
  - * Trophée Diamant Inoubliable, award-winning wine with 96 points at 100 points
  - * Trophée Diamant Mémorable, award-winning wine with 91 points to 95 points
  - * Trophée Diamant Admirable, award-winning wine with 85 to 90 points
  - * Trophée Argent Remarquable , award winning wine with 80 to 84 points
- These particulars may not appear on the label.

These award-winning wines will however benefit from a specific communication according to their particular mention (media, press, internet, specialized sites, etc.).

No particular mention can be attributed if the wine is not part of the list. The number of labels supplied will depend on the production volume stated on the application form. No other references or representation of the award are permitted on the bottle. Inter Concours du Monde Association reserves the exclusive right to monitor the use of the awards for commercial purposes. All non authorized use of the competition logo, awards and prizes are strictly prohibited. The results of the international competition will be communicated to the general public using all methods of communication, insofar as is possible.
